

YOUR HOME HAS REMOVED TONNES OF CO₂ FROM THE AIR.

The average timber framed home has removed more than eight tonnes of CO₂ from the atmosphere. That's equivalent to taking three cars off the road in a year.

What's more, your home has made way for new trees to be planted, picking up the baton in protecting the atmosphere and preserving the home we all share.

Thank you for building with timber framing, and building a better world.

renewabletimberframing.com.au

v1.0